Paella Lovers United 2010

Team Rules of Engagement http://PaellaLoversUnited.com

Thank you for your interest in Paella Lovers United - an Austin Texas based paella group. If you are interested in becoming a team contestant, here are the guidelines we are requesting:

>   NOTI CE   THIS LIST IS SUBJECT TO CHANGE **

Last Update: August 18, 2010

Who we are:

- * We are a local Austin Texas group who loves good paella along with a good party to go with it. Come visit our website at: http://PaellaLoversUnited.com
- * Please remember that this is still a back yard style event. Competition is lively, but certainly friendly. close interaction with other teams and patrons. There will be

Date:

* Nov 6, 2010

* Doors open to the public at 2:00

* Competition is roughly from 2:00 - 9:00

Location:

* Due to the phenomenal growth of Paella Lovers United's annual festival, we realized we have outgrown our South Austin location and are thrilled to announce the new location for this year's event:

16525 Decker Creek Dr,

Austin, TX 78653

Take MLK east to 183 overpass. Continue on FM-969 for 5.9 miles. Turn Right on Decker Creek Dr. Continue for 0.4 miles. 16525 Decker Creek will be on the Right.

* See website for more information

-----What Does It Cost?

 * Competing teams are required to pay a small, $25 deposit. This is to ensure that we have commitment from the teams and to help cover expenses such as setup, site prep, wood, etc. This deposit will also register teams for their designated "ready time" for judging. This deposit will cover all team members (see Team Size below). If you would like more information regarding this, please contact us at:

Team	Na	me	es	:

* Each team will be required to have a team name. This is for judging and documentation purposes.

Team Size:

* Each team is allowed a maximum of 3 members. All team members entry fees will be covered by the team deposit.

* Sorry, other team supporters will be subject to the regular event entry.

Please note, that this is an open wood fire event. All dishes will be prepared over an open, wood burning fire. Fires will be provided and maintained by Paella Lovers United. Teams will be responsible for controlling and regulating their own site. NO unsafe practice will be allowed. Any extra, team provided, "wood chips" for enhanced smoke flavoring, etc. are permitted (Orange branches, rosemary, etc).

Paella Styles:

* There are numerous varieties of paella. However, the competition will be grouped into two broad categories.

Traditional

Keep Austin Weird

Both these styles will be paella riced based.

Traditional will be judged on how well the dish represents the true to form Spanish traditions.

Keep Austin Weird is everything else. The variety is endless and we encourage creativity.

Team Responsibilites:

* Team name and contact person/info: Phone number/email/text, etc

* All paella ingredients and kitchen prep tools for their dish. This includes work pots, knives, spoons, serving utensiles, etc. We encourage teams with quality as the main objective. After all, this is an open to the public event and everybody will be watching Page 2

Rules_of_Engagement.txt and wanting to sample. It is also expect to user quality ingredients and proper paella rice (ie., No jasmine, rice). ALL cooking, etc is to be done onsite.

- * Their own work table. Table space may be already be provided but will be limited teams are encouraged to bring their portable tables if they have. Same with lawn chairs best to bring your own. A flashlight for after dark cooking.
- * Paella pan, 22 inch minimum required. (22-26 preferred). We can provide a limited number of 22 inch pans on a first come, first served basis (limit 7)a. A 22 inch pan can feed approximately 12-14 people. Afterwards, sharing of pans will be done with later teams waiting for earlier teams to finish. Teams will be required to clean loaned pans after use.

There are a number of excellent websites which provide pans and other paella related material. Here are a few, but there are many more available online:

http://www.tienda.com http://www.paellapans.com http://www.buyspain.com

- * Pan support setup. (i.e. Large, open, oven rack or metal tripod,) The fire is contained with a small area by 6 inch construction cinder blocks. Teams will need to provide their own pan support setup to actually hold or balance their pan over the fire. Racks can be placed over/on the cinder blocks or withing the pit itself. Heat regulation to the pan is the teams responsibility either by controlling the fire or pan height.
- * Understand their own prep and cooking time and the timing of their dish for judging. Teams will be assigned a "READY TIME" and will be expected to be finished and at the presentation table on this time.

- * Maintaining and cleaning their site area and act with safety for themselves and others around the open fires. Teams with children must keep their loved ones away from all open fires.
- * All finished paella with be available for open public consumption after judging.
- * A lively, paella spirit with the sense of community.

We Paella Lovers United will provide:

- * Fire pits, fires, fire tools (shovels, etc). Please note that fire pits consist of an open wood burning fire, surrounded by construction style, 6" or so cinder blocks or metal trivets. Each pit is roughly 18-20 inch square. This is not fancy, but it is functional. (See above for what teams are required to bring).
- * Full size wash basin and cleaning table.

Rul es_of_Engagement.txt

- * Limited table space.
- * Lighting (after dark).
- * Water, trash pickup, etc.
- * Prizes and gifts for teams and place winners (to be determined).

Team Times (READY TIME):

- * Competition starts around 2:00 and proceeds until all teams have been submitted.
- * Approximately 15 to 30 minutes between competing teams depending total number of teams.
- * Judging time for teams will be assigned on a first come request basis starting at 2:00 with approximately 15-20 minute increment between teams. This gives the judges time to review and rate and provide continual fresh paella to the public. If you have a preference "READY TIME", please let us know (2:00 9:00) PM. No guarantee, but will will certainly try to accommodate.
- * Team signup are through the website: http://PaellaLoversUnited.com => Paella Team Sign Up

Time Limits:

* This is a casual competition - mostly for fun. However, teams will be assigned a scheduled "READY TIME" and be expected to adhere to it. With that, there is no preparation time limit. However, dishes must be ready at their time. This allows judges to evaluate each dish. It is HIGHLY encouraged for teams to get to the site well in advance for preparation, etc. (At least 2-3 hours recommendend).

Judging Criteria:

* Judging will be based on a pre-defined set of criteria. Items such as quality of the rice, texture, carmelization, presentation, etc. However, teams are encouraged to be creative in line with the spirit of the event. This criteria is available from the website:

http://PaellaLoversUnited.com > Paella Team Sign Up > Judging Criterion

How	to	Si gn	up:

* Visit the website at http://PaellaLoversUnited.com > Paella Team Sign Up
